

PM Modi inaugurated Buddha Jayanti Celebration at New Delhi Acharya Lokesh with Faith leaders gave peace message at the event

Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi inaugurated the Buddha Jayanti celebrations organised by the Ministry of Culture in collaboration with the International Buddhist Confederation (IBC) at Indira Gandhi Stadium New Delhi. Acharya Dr. Lokesh with leader of different religions Sadhvi Bhagwati from Parmarth Niketan, Shri Paramjeet Singh Chandok Chairman Bangla Sahib Gurudwara, Mufti Manzur Ziyae renowned International Islamic Scholar, Acharya Shailesh. Welcome speech was given by Culture Minister Dr Mahesh Sharma, subject was introduced by Minister of State for Home Affairs Kiren Rijiju and Vote of thanks was presented by Secretary General of International Buddhist Confederation (IBC) Dr Dhammapiya. Many eminent Buddha priests and scholars were honored on the occasion. The stadium was filled with Buddhist monks and peace lovers.

PM Modi on the occasion said that a conglomerate of Buddhist institutions has come together to showcase the various facets of Buddhist traditions. PM Modi highlighted that India has never been an aggressor and that religious thoughts born in India have always been considerate of others. Indian religions are inclusive and tolerant. He said “The teachings of Lord Buddha are extremely relevant in the 21st century. His was a life devoted to alleviating suffering and removing injustice from society. His compassion has endeared him to millions.”

Jain Acharya Dr. Lokesh Muni on the occasion said that both Bhagwan Buddha and Bhagwan Mahavir both have given the message of non-violence, peace and compassion. Jainism and Buddhism both aim to establish World Peace and Harmony to humanity. At many occasions H.H. Dalai lama has said that Buddha and Jain religions are like twins of a mother. Both born in India and work for humanity. He said that India has pluralist culture where people of all religions and faith live with harmony.

Home Minister Rajnath Singh and Acharya Lokesh inaugurated Sir Ganga Ram Hospital Foundation Day

H.H. Acharya Dr. Lokesh with Honorable Home Minister of India Shri Rajnath Singh inaugurated Sir Ganga Ram Hospital Foundation Day Function. President Shri Ashok Chandra, Chairman Dr. D.S. Rana, MP Shri Parvesh Verma, BJP Delhi State General Secretary Shri Rajesh Bhatia, Councillor Paramjeet Singh Rana are also present on the occasion. Newly constructed Multilevel Parking contracted with an investment of crores of rupees was also inaugurated on the occasion.

Acharya Lokesh honored with 'Best Spiritual Leader' Award Acharya Lokesh is Pride of India - Bhaiyyu ji Maharaj

International icon of religious harmony Acharya Dr. Lokesh was honored with 'Best Spiritual Leader Award' at Yashwantraaj Chavan Auditorium in Mumbai. Spiritual and social leader Shri Bhaiyyuji Maharaj dedicated the award to him for his remarkable contribution in the field of national character creation, upliftment of human values, social harmony and conservation and promotion of Indian culture. At 'Newsmakers Achievers' Awards 2018' Bappi Lehri, Vivekananda Educational Institute, Vijay Jolly, Subash Chander Agarwal Dr. Avinash Supe, Kailash Kher, Aruna Raje Patil, Bharti Singh, Rajeev Singh, Makrand Deshpande and many eminent people in the field of education, Arts, Culture, Media, Politics, Social Services were honored. Prestigious people of the city were present on the occasion. The ceremony was held to recognise the efforts of common men who have made some difference to the society through their hard work and determination. This year the awards were dedicated to help the 'Divyangs' (handicapped) and offer assistance to the education of the sex workers' daughters.

Acharya Lokesh addressing the award ceremony said that Indian culture is based on religion. People of all religions and faith live here with harmony. Religion has three dimensions worship, morality and spirituality. By adopting teachings of any religion a person can benefit himself, bring welfare to family and society. Associating religion with social work to uplift the society is the need of present times.

Vaidehi Taman, the Group Editor of Newsmakers said that Acharya Lokesh has made commendable attempts to establish world peace and harmony with Ahimsa Vishwa Bharti organisation he launched a mass movement against social evils like female feticide and alcoholism.

Acharya Lokesh addressed All Religion Conclave in Indore

Ambassador of Peace Acharya Dr. Lokesh addressing Religion Conclave said that it is necessary to connect religion with social service and make a medium for social welfare. Religious Leaders in one voice said that religious unity and tolerance will create world peace and human welfare. They said religion is the code of conduct for life, religion does not create differences. At Religion Conclave organized by Humsaaj organisation at Amber Convention Center in Indore Jain Acharya Dr. Lokesh, Bhayyu ji Maharaj, Maulana Mahmud Madani, Brahmeshanandacharya Swami, Mahamandaleshwar Keshav Das Ji, Dr. Abde Ali Saifuddin, Dr. Harvan Singh, Syed Abdul Tariq, Bhikkhu Pragyaadeep, Prof. Nolamp Tripathi, Urmila Devi, Dr. Uday Nirgunkar, Prof. Akhtarul Vase, Mahamandaleshwar Laxmi Narayan Tripathi, many litterateur, sociologist, journalist and academics addressed the gathering.

Historical moment of Jain Unity on Acharya Vidyanandji Maharaj 94th Birthday

Historical moment of Jain unity was seen at Digambar Acharya Vidyanandji Maharaj 94th birthday celebrations. Acharya Dr. Lokesh Muni of Shwetamber sect, Acharya Shrutsagar ji, Acharya Pragyasagar ji and Bhattarak Charukirti ji addressed the celebrations at Kundkund Bharti New Delhi. A sense of unity and pride was seen in the devotees with liberal, communicative, energetic speech of Acharya Lokesh. Everybody appreciated Acharya Lokesh with round of applause and said let us together make the dream of Jain unity to come true. Acharya Vidyanandji Maharaj said that India is a religious country; religion is the essence of life here.

Human development and welfare is possible by purifications of prayers and eating habits.

Acharya Dr. Lokesh said that Acharya Vidyanandji Maharaj is the not only a pride Digambar or Shwetambar he is the precious gem of humanity. His life is a wonderful combination of high thoughts, intellect and humility. Acharya Shrutasagar ji and Acharya Pragya Sagar ji said that Acharya Vidyanandji Maharaj has spent his whole life in the protection and promotion of Jain culture and the salvation of society. Dr. Veer Sagar Jain presented manglacharan, President of Kundkund Bharti Satish Jain Nanagram Johri, Chakresh Jain, Punit Jain, Anil Jain, Nirmal Jain Sethi and many eminent people were present on the occasion.

Acharya Lokesh addressed Bhramakumaris regional headquarters in Indore. He said that the excellent arrangement of training for the creation of the sacrament, knowledge, meditation, self-meditation attracts the mind. It reminds me of Paramarthik Shikshan Sanstha, Laadnu, founded by my Diksha Guru's Param Pujya Acharya Shri Tulsi Ji.

Acharya Lokesh addressed Education and Skill seminar in Bangalore

Acharya Dr. Lokesh addressing Education and Skill conclave at Bangalore said that all sections of the society should get equal opportunities for education and skill development. Large Indian population including youth have faith in religion, they are followers of any one religion. If we make efforts to educate and develop skills in youth through religion it will be of great benefit to the society.

Founder of Ahimsa Vishwa Bharti Jain Acharya Lokesh, President of all India Imam organisation Imam Umer Ahmed Ilyasi ji, President of Bhrigu Foundation Goswami Sushil ji Maharaj, Chairman of Bangla Sahib Gurudwara Shri Paramjit Singh Chandok ji, Mufti Manzur Ziyae, Acharya Pramod Krishnan ji, Kavi Kumar Viswash, Cricketer Ajruddin and many more faith and social leaders addressed the issues of education and skills at the conclave organised by Alzamiatuz Zohra Educational Trust.

Acharya Lokesh addressed Paramshree Media Excellence Awards

Acharya Lokesh addressed Paramshree Media Excellence Award and honored many journalists at New Delhi Civic Centre. Acharya Lokesh was honored by organisers including V.K. Sharma and Santosh Bhartiya on the occasion. Acharya Lokesh Muni gave the message of Peace and Harmony media fraternity.

Acharya Dr. Lokesh Muni addressing All India Convention of Editors organised on the occasion of 34th Foundation Day of Indian Federation of Small and Medium Newspapers at Constitution Club of India New Delhi said that Media has important role in social development.