First World Peace Center will spread peace in the world - Sri Sri Peace Education should be included in the school curriculum activities to prevent violence in the world - Acharya Lokesh

While addressing the World Peace Dialogue, Sri Sri Ravi Shankar, Founder, Art of Living Foundation, said that if everyone intends to stand up for peace and pay attention to their mental health, we can turn world peace into a reality. Sri Sri said that global peace is not possible without individual peace. At the same time, Sri Sri said that a World Peace Center is being established by the Ahimsa Vishwa Bharti organization, which will be dedicated to world peace and will also guide the world from time to time.

Referring to the increasing incidents of gun violence in America, Acharya Dr Lokeshji said that it is very important to include peace education in the school curriculum to root out violence and terror. Expressing his views on the topic of dialogue 'Peace and Conflict', he said that war, violence and terror are not the solution to any problem, violence gives rise to counter-violence. The dispute between Ukraine and Russia can also be resolved through dialogue; the World Peace Center will prepare 1000 Peace Ambassadors to eliminate such conflicts. Bhai Satpal Singh ji, Ambassador of Sikhism in USA said that the human caste is one. All religions need to work together to protect humanity.

Eminent film actor Shri Vivek Oberoi while moderating the World Peace Dialogue said that India's first World Peace Center would play an important role in establishing peace in the world by working on the training and research of non-violence.

On this occasion, Mr. Yogesh Shah, President of JCSC, Mr. Mahesh Wadher, former President JAINA, Dr. Nitin Shah thanked all the dignitaries present in the event.
