PRESIDENT OF INDIA INAUGURATED ASSOCHAM CONCLAVE

Spiritual thought is one of the many gifts of India to the world - Acharya Lokesh

President of India Shri Pranab Mukherjee inaugurated the conclave 'World confluence of Humanity, Power and Spirituality' co-hosted by the Assocham, Times Foundation and Srei Foundation. Founder of Ahimsa Vishwa Bharti Acharya Dr. Lokesh Muni addressed the session Spirituality and Humanity during the conclave.

President Pranab Mukherjee addressing the conclave said that 'World confluence of Humanity, Power and Spirituality' is being conducted since 2010 to ignite the human spirit, and harness human potential to selfless service. Spirituality has a strong connect with our daily lives. What it means is to be devoted to work harder for growth of the nation and for common benefit. Human life is full of contradictions. We are running to fulfil our ambitions; on the other hand, we are looking for happiness. There is so much pressure to prove ourselves but we are also driven by the desire to look for peace and get inner satisfaction.

Acharya Lokesh Muni said that Spiritual thought is one of the many gifts of India to the world. India is a guiding light in spiritual leadership, as reflected in the lives of all great avatars and masters like Rama, Krishna, Ramakrishna Paramhansa, Swami Vivekananda and others. India is also a country that fought for freedom with nonviolence. He said that in India, we have always embraced diversity and inclusiveness. Our philosophy and thought have always aimed to create a high level of being. Spirituality gives us the power to attain our goals; to surmount challenges.

Acharya Giriraj Kishore on the occasion said that all progress depends on productive, sustainable use of resources. We need to instil in people the culture of hard work and dedication through spirituality.

Today's world is becoming more insular; spirituality can show us how to treat others with compassion.

The welcome address was given by President of ASSOCHAM Shri Sunil Kanoria. The conclave was also addressed by Central Minister for Women & child Development Smt. Menaka Gandhi, Swami Chidanand Saraswati of Parmarath Niketan Ashram, President of All India Imam Organisation Imam Umer Ahmed Ilyasi, Senior RSS Leader Shri Indresh Kumar Ji, Chairman of Srei Foundation & World Confluence of Humanity, Power & Spirituality Dr H P Kanoria.
