Free Health Check-up & Wellness Camp held at WPC

A free health check-up and wellness camp was organized at the World Peace Centre, Gurugram, under the guidance of Jain Acharya Lokesh Ji, founder of Ahimsa Vishwa Bharti. The camp featured comprehensive health services delivered by specialists from various fields. These included eye and ENT (ear, nose, and throat) examinations, along with physiotherapy, meditation, yoga, and pranayama sessions.

Acharya Lokeshji said that this free health check-up and wellness camp is an example of social service and human values in action. It is to extend healthcare facilities to all sections of society, especially the underprivileged and those in need. He said that building a “healthy and prosperous India” is possible only when healthcare services are equally accessible to all.

Yoga session was taken by Yogacharya Karan. The team included ENT specialist Dr. Debjani, eye specialist Dr. Gayatri Kanan, physiotherapist Dr. Piyush Anand, Azeem, and diet expert Dr. Shelly. The team members of the World Peace Centre, including Tarkeshwari Mishra, Kenu Agarwal, Vineet Sharma, Dayaram, and others, dedicatedly worked for success of camp.
